

TRAIL FEATURES

| MILE | TRAIL FEATURE | VEGETATION |
|-------------|--|-------------------|
| 0.0 | Beaver Trail forks west/northwest off FDR #266 on south Meadow/Sage side of cattleguard and fenceline on south side of Lenna Peak. Trail travels as two-track along north side of Gander Pond. | Open |
| 0.09 | Trail travels along northern edge of marshy area (Gander Pond) at level grade. Plateau Ridge visible to south. | |
| 0.24 | Trail climbs gradually on southern flank of Lenna Peak. Beaver OM/Sage/Snowberry/ponds visible in creek below trail (Beaver Creek). Serviceberry/Willow | |
| 0.34 | Trail passes through gate and fenceline on southwest flank of Lenna Peak, trail climbs gradually. | |
| 0.40 | Trail climbs gradually in mixed aspen, snowberry, serviceberry. A two-track forks left (southwest) off trail and heads toward creek. | |
| 0.48 | Trail travels on bench on east side of Beaver Creek. Trail OM/Snowberry/travels parallel to long ridge on opposite side of drainage. Battlement Mts. now visible to north. | Aspen |
| 0.59 | Trail descends at moderate grade on east side of creek OM/Snowberry/on western flank of Lenna Peak. Aspen/Serviceberry | |
| 0.70 | A two-track forks left (southwest) off trail, travels down to creek. Beaver Trail climbs at moderate grade heading northwest. | |
| 0.88 | Slump area visible above trail to east on ridge. Beaver Trail travels at variable up and downhill grade on hillside on east side of creek. | |
| 1.0 | Trail descends gradually through mixed aspen, oakbrush, serviceberry, snowberry. Castle Ditch visible across drainage on opposite (west) side at same elevation as Beaver Trail. | |

- 1.21 Trail travels at level grade in drainage bottom at same elevation
OM/Sage/Snowberry/
as Beaver Creek. A small oakbrush knob now visible down Willow/Serviceberry drainage to north.
- 1.35 Trail travels at level grade in large park. A fenceline is visible on opposite side of creek.
- 1.46 Trail travels at level grade in grassy meadow. A road cut is visible on opposite side of creek in oakbrush on low ridge.
- 1.54 A two-track forks left (west/northwest) off Beaver Trail, crosses creek and appears to tie in with road mentioned at 1.46 mile.
- 1.70 Trail enters small aspen stand, descends gradually toward Aspen/Snowberry/
Large, sage park. Serviceberry
- 1.82 Trail descends out of aspen stand in large, sage park. Great view of lower Beaver Creek drainage from this location.
- 1.83 A two-track forks right (northeast) off Beaver Trail, climbs away from drainage along aspen stand on northwest flank of Lenna Peak.
- 1.96 Trail levels out in large park at edge of aspen stand on east side of Beaver Creek. Trail travels parallel to low, oakbrush covered ridge on opposite side of creek.
- 2.14 Trail climbs gradually on sagebrush bench between aspen stand and creek.
- 2.24 Trail descends on bench through mixed snowberry, sage,
serviceberry, chokecherry and aspen.
- 2.33 Trail reaches slump/slide area on east side of creek. Beaver Trail narrows from two-track to single track width.
- 2.41 Trail descends to Beaver Creek as single track, trail in poor condition.
- 2.48 Trail reaches fenceline (private) in bottom of Beaver Creek.
Fenceline runs perpendicular to creek.

- 2.52 Trail climbs away from creek up private land fenceline onto hillside on eastern side of creek. At this location the trail passes through a gate in the fenceline adjacent to the private land.
- 2.64 Trail descends as two-track at moderate grade on east side of creek above private land fenceline. An angled road cut is visible on opposite hillside.
- 2.85 Trail continues descending down private land fence as two-track. Another road cut is visible at this location. Road climbs straight up opposite hillside from creek to ridgetop.
- 2.93 Trail continues descent down private land fenceline on east side of Beaver Creek. Gate in private land fence at this location.
- 3.03 At this location the Beaver Trail veers right (east/southeast) toward Buzzard Creek and old Buzzard Campground. Trail is overgrown with brush and trees.
- 3.11 Trail crosses Buzzard Creek on north edge of campground.
Spruce/Fir/
- 3.12 Beaver Trail intersects access road for Buzzard Campground (FDR #266.1B) on east side of creek. End of Beaver Trail.

Cotton
wood